

Critical Thinking Seminar

Critical Thinking for
Problem Solving, Decision Making and Creativity

1 Hour – Free Seminar

*What is Critical Thinking? Why is it important?
How do you do it?*

August 13, 2009
At 9:00 A.M.
Denver University

• 1 Hour • Free • By invitation only •

This one hour seminar introduces you to critical thinking, what it is, the benefits, and how you go about implementing it.

Your Takeaway from your 60 minute investment will be:

- An understanding of what critical thinking is and why it's important
- Several critical thinking techniques that you will be able to use back in your office when solving problems and making decisions. You will really see a difference !!
- No steak dinner, no ginzu knives, no sales pitch. Just coffee, and a business card.

About HeadScratchers. Mike Kallet, former COO of ICG Communications started HeadScratchers in 2004 with the mission to help professionals become better "HeadScratchers", i.e. Problem Solvers and Decision Makers. HeadScratchers conducts Critical Thinking Workshops that train people to effectively apply critical thinking techniques in their businesses. This results in higher quality problem solving, decision making and creativity. Visit www.headscratchers.com for more information.

HeadScratchers helps you say "Yes" to the following questions:

- Does your staff think Critically and Creatively?
- Do your managers lead people in "Thinking" as well as "Doing"?
- Is "Thinking Smarter" just a phrase, or do your employees know how to do this?

Who should attend?

If you manage other people, are responsible for training, organization or leadership development, or have significant economic or business decision responsibility, you'll be glad you invested this hour.
